PICNIC PROVISIONS TRAIL

Welcome to Albany WA

Albany Picnic Provisions Trail is a self-drive journey providing access to your choice of locally grown seasonal produce for your picnic basket. Along this trail, you will meet the growers of fruit, vegetables, meat and seafood as well as wine and beer producers.

You can start filling your picnic basket by visiting the town centre based markets and gourmet retail outlets and then add to your provisions from the growers you meet along the way.

The trail can be experienced in half a day, a whole day or be enjoyed over several days - the choice is yours! Fancy a riverside picnic or one by the beach? Maybe you would prefer to picnic on a grassy knoll with a rural outlook?

This trail provides the opportunity to explore our Amazing South Coast and savour our bountiful produce at the same time. Enjoy!

Location of Albany WA

Albany is just a 4.5 hour, 415km drive south of Perth, straight down Albany highway. Driving through some of the State's most beautiful countryside, you'll pass forests, working farms, vineyards and, in the late winter/early spring, some of the most spectacularly yellow fields of canola you're ever likely to see.

About WA Food & Wine Trails
